Description de l'action

A room is made available where students can exchange ideas and receive counselling as required.

Contexte

Identitarian diversity is part of everyday life in our society. Even though a lot has already been achieved, young people in particular find it difficult to orientate themselves. There are questions, uncertainties, but also still discriminatory situations.

Objectifs

For the third year in a row now, our aim as a school is to offer young people a safe space where they can exchange ideas and receive counselling.

Approche

For the third year in a row now, our aim as a school is to offer young people a safe space where they can exchange ideas and receive counselling. And this space is often gratefully accepted and utilised.

Impact

Sensitisation
Retreat
Exchange
Empowerment

« A faire »

A room must be provided that is available at certain times, preferably at all times.

« Ne pas faire »

The room should not be exposed so that the sense of a safe space is given and the pupils do not feel exposed to negative situations on the way there.
